GEO. M. BLACKSTOCK, Agent,
No. 37 Fifth Street, Pittsburgh.

Duff's College Circular for 1867.

Has just been issued by the principals of this widely known and favorite Pittsburgh establishment. The publication is in the quarto form, and contains some new and interesting matter relative to the course of business education, so long and so successfully taught in the institution. Among other things we notice a beautiful electrotype engraving of Wm. H. Duff's handwriting, in an elegant set of capitals, and an original and animated design of Pen Flourishing, which every one desirous of becoming a master penman, will prize as a gem of the chirographic art.

Asthma or Phthisic Cured in Ten Minutes.

It is an established fact, that can be attested to by many citizens of Pittsburgh, that Upham's Asthma Cure, sold at Dr. Keyser's, is a complete and perfect remedy for that troublesome disease. It will in a few minutes take away the distressing DYSPNOE and spasms attending Asthma, and by a persevering use, will totally eradicate the complaint.

Mr. Upham has hundred of certificates from all quarters of the Union, bearing the most flattering approval of his ASTHMA CURE; and then, besides, Dr. Keyser, the agent for it here, proposes to refund the money, in all cases where it fails to give relief, when used according to directions. This relief is lasting, and by the use of the cure for awhile, the habit of the disease is broken, and health restored. Every Asthmatic patient knows as well as we do, the terrible suffocating feeling and prostration which accompanies an attack of Asthma, and many of them would give hundreds of dollars to procure exemption from its grasp. This exemption can be obtained speedily, surely and effectually, by the remedy above mentioned, than which, none that we are acquainted with has gained more on public approbation, or procured a wider reputation. It can be sent by mail, by addressing Dr. Keyser, No. 140 Wood street, and enclosing the price, two dollars, and ten cents to pay postage. Sold as above, by the gross, dozen, or single package.

REPORT ON BREECH-LOADING ARMS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19, 1866.

THE IMPEACHMENT QUESTION.

It is now understood that a movement is on foot to prepare charges and specifications against President Johnson.

THE TERRITORIAL PROJECT.

The territorial project will, it is believed, be postponed until next Congress, when the radical Senators will be in stronger force. It is feared that the project would fail in the present Senate.

THE NEBRASKA BILL.

The Nebraska bill will pass, but a veto will be fatal, as it cannot get the requisite two-thirds.

The Senate did not reach a vote on the Nebraska bill to-day. It is bitterly opposed by Senator Sumner, for the exclusion of negroes from the right of suffrage, under the State Constitution.

CHINESE EMIGRATION.

The resolution offered this morning by Mr. Williams, of Oregon, to prohibit the emigration of Chinese into this country, produced much surprise in the Senate Chamber, as our's is styled the asylum of all nations. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

GRAVE CHARGES AGAINST A SENATOR.

THE DISTRICT SUFFRAGE BILL.

The statement that the District of Columbia Suffrage bill had been considered in the Cabinet is unfounded.

THE TEST OATH DECISION.

It is authentically stated that the Supreme Court has agreed upon a decision in the Test Oath cases, and that Judge Grier, who is assigned to deliver the decision, is now engaged in the preparation of the opinion of the majority of the Court. From the fact that Judge Grier is selected to deliver the opinion, it is inferred that the Court has decided that the Test Oath is unconstitutional, at least so far as it affects lawyers.

APPALLING DISASTER AT MEMPHIS.

Terrible Loss of Life from a Fire.

HEROIC ACTION OF A FIREMAN.

MEMPHIS, Dec. 19.—A fire broke out in the basement of Joseph Specht's confectionary establishment, Madison street, at three o'clock this morning, resulting in an appalling disaster. Sixteen person sleeping in the fourth story were suffocated, or else woke to a sense of their situation, and, leaping through the windows, were crushed on the pavement below. Wm. Jehle, wholesale notion dealer, and son-in-law, Mr. Specht, wife and child, were asleep at the time. Captain Waldaiven, Chief of the Fire Department, ascended by a ladder to the room and found the wife dead, and Jehle lying on the floor with just strength enough left to point to the cradle where the child, four weeks old, was, and dropped lifeless. Chief Waldaiven and the child escaped through the windows. The blankets over its face saved the life of the child. Joseph Bartie jumped from the fourth story and escaped with slight bruises. Several others attempted it but were dashed to pieces on the rocks.

Nine negroes, employed in the establishment, were burned to death, and of eighteen residing in the building, only one, Bartie, escaped.

The engines were promptly on the spot and extinguished the fire with little damage to the building.

MEMPHIS, December 19.—The stern wheeler Memphis, hence for Little Rock, struck a snag in Arkansas river, on Monday night. The boat sunk and she and her cargo are a total loss. She was owned by Dan Abel, Montwalt, of this city, and was valued at $20,000. Insured at Cincinnati and St. Louis for $14,000. This is the second time this season she has been sunk.

FROM NEW YORK.

An Important Financial Question—The Investigation into the Whisky Frauds—Not One-Tenth of the Whisky Manufactured Pays the Tax—The Croton Aqueduct Dispute—A Severe Sentence, &c., &c.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—The city will issue bonds to the amount of two millions and a half to repay the banks for taxes which were assessed and illegally collected in 1863 and 1864, without regard to the securities comprising their capital stock. A large proportion of these were United States bonds, and were exempt by Act of Congress from taxation. Claims amounting to two millions have already been adjusted and the bonds will be issued next week in payment.

The Congressional Committee on Whisky Revenue Frauds have discovered that great rascalities have been practised here. Several officials are implicated. Many thousand gallons of whisky have been sold at one dollar and a half per gallon, when the tax alone is two dollars. The Committee are satisfied that not one-fourth of the whisky manufactured here pays the government tax.

Mr. Bradley, the new appointee as President of the Croton Aqueduct Board, appeared this morning and claimed the office, which Mr. Stevens, the President, declined to surrender. Mr. Bradley was kept from the building, and the police are now in possession of the premises.

John Sinnot was to-day sentenced to twenty years in the state prison for rape on a child six years old.

Frederick T. Peet, one of our oldest merchants, died in East Hampton, Mass.

The jury in the case of Weaver against the First National Bank of New Orleans, for alleged negligent delivery of a trunk, returned a verdict for the bank.

In the safe case of Sanborn vs. Herring, the jury were unable to agree.

Loss of Government Property by Fire.

JUNCTION CITY, Kansas, December 19.—The Commissary building at Fort Dodge, containing seventy-five thousand pounds of bacon, and a large amount of government clothing, &c., has been destroyed by fire. The books and papers of the Quartermaster and Commissary were mostly saved. The fire was accidental. The loss is not stated.

THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS,

(SECOND SESSION.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. Harris, from the Judiciary Committee, reported, with amendments, the House bill fixing the time for the meeting of Congress.

A joint resolution, suspending the publication of the Volunteer Army Register, was taken up and recommitted to the Military Committee.

Mr. Fessenden presented a petition from railroad Presidents, asking a reduction of duty on railroad iron and steel.

Mr. Ross introduced a joint resolution relating to the government of the States lately in rebellion. Laid on the table.

On motion of Mr. Wilson the Secretary of the Interior was requested to communicate what amount of goods for the Indian Bureau had been purchased in open market, giving an estimate.

Mr. Pomeroy introduced a bill to equalize the value of currency.

On motion of Mr. Williams the Committee on Foreign Relations were instructed to inquire into the expediency of prohibiting the immigration or importation of Chinese into the United States.

Mr. Ross, of Kansas, offered the following joint resolution relating to the government of the States lately in rebellion: Whereas, the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed at the first session of the 39th Congress, known as Article 14, and submitted to the several States for their acceptance or rejection, not having been accepted by the States, and certain sections of country lately in rebellion being thereby in danger of falling into a state of anarchy by reason of their having no legitimate government, Be it, therefore,

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, That the Joint Committee on Reconstruction be directed to inquire into the expediency of establishing such regulations for the government of such districts in rebellion against the United States as shall have refused, or shall hereafter refuse, to accept such amendments as may be found necessary for the promotion of peace and protection of citizens and the interests of the Government in these districts.

The resolution was laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

The bill for the admission of Nebraska was taken up.

The pending question was on the amendment of Mr. Cowan, providing as a condition that the citizens of Nebraska should never claim the right to leave the Union.

Mr. Howard, of Michigan, argued that the requirements of the enabling act had been complied with, and at this critical time the admission of these territories (Colorado and Nebraska) should not be made the subject of these abstractions proposed by Senators—making the conferring suffrage upon the negro a fundamental condition to the admission of Nebraska was a dangerous precedent. Congress had the right to impose conditions, but they should be conditions precedent, made before the territory entered the Union; it was competent for Nebraska at any time after admission to annul this provision, that being one of the reserved rights of States. He hoped and expected to see the time when equal rights would be given to the blacks. He thought nothing else would bring peace to the lately rebellious States.

Mr. Brown, of Missouri, asked whether assuming that States had exclusive control of the right of franchise, the Senator held that in case a State should destroy the Republican government, the United States had not the right to guarantee and protect that Republican form of government in the State.

Mr. Howard said that the question did not present itself now. When it was he would apply the remedy provided by the Constitution. He would say to the senator that he did not believe that a denial by any State to allow the negro to vote such a departure from the principles of a republican form of government as to authorize Congress to interfere with it, as had been alleged by the senator from Ohio.

Mr. Sherman said that Congress had agreed to re-admit the States lately in rebellion upon the adoption by them of the Constitutional Amendment. He took the occasion to contradict it.

Mr. Norton, of Minnesota, asked whether the Senator had not on a former occasion, used this very argument which he now contradicted.

Mr. Howard said the Senator was misinformed. Congress had not agreed to admit those States on that ratification, leaving open the question whether three-fourths of the States would ratify those amendments. He read from a report of the Reconstruction Committee to show that when these amendments had become a part of the Constitution, then those States should be admitted. This bill, containing this proposition, had not, however, passed the Senate.

He denied that the Republican party was actuated by party feeling in favoring the admission of those territories. He would say, however, that he did desire their admission because it added strength to his party in Congress, for the interests of the country required it.

Mr. Howard spoke in strong terms of the President's acts and speeches, where he had denounced Congress, and said it was time Congress should fortify itself against his wanton and promiscuous use of the veto power for it was obvious no legislation could take place without a two-third vote was secured. In this view, he thought it his duty to defeat the absolutism of the Executive. The Secretary of State had prophesied that the President would triumph, and the organ of the President had threatende revolution. He was not to be intimidated by the threats of the one or the prophesies of the other.

Mr. Johnson, of Maryland, followed in opposition to the admission of Nebraska. He also discussed the general political aspects of the question.

Mr. Wilson, of Massachusetts, moved an amendment, giving the Legislature of Nebraska power to decide the question of suffrage. He supported the bill at some length.

Mr. Doolittle, of Wisconsin, inquired whether the Senator understood that the faith of the nation was pledged to the admission of the Southern States on their adoption of the Constitutional Amendment.

Mr. Wilson said he voted for Tennessee because she was fitted to come in, but denied that Congress had made any pledges. He said he would go to the utmost verge of constitutional power in insisting that those people must respect life and liberty and property, and he thought the only way to secure that was to give the ballot to all men. The rebels had no right to hold governments, and he thought it the duty of the General Government to take them from their hands.

Mr. Doolittle said the fact that Congress had submitted the amendments for those States to vote on, acknowledged that they were States and had valid legislative powers.

Mr. Fessenden, of Maine, said he wanted this unhappy controversy ended, but he would not yield the guarantees already insisted on, and perhaps such others as may be found necessary.

Mr. Doolittle asked whether Congress had not, by submitting the amendment for ratification, assumed those States had power to ratify it?

Mr. Fessenden said that Congress had merely provided that it should be submitted to the States, without saying what were States.

Mr. Doolittle said it was submitted on the implied admission that the Southern States were to have representation as soon as they adopted it. The Reconstruction Committee had committed themselves to this doctrine, and the Senators must take one ground or the other, either they had State governments or they had not.

A motion to adjourn was lost.

Mr. Cowan's amendment was lost, and various motions to adjourn were also voted down.

Messrs. Sumner, Buckalew and others, desired a postponement and time to consider a measure setting forth such an important precedent.

Mr. Kirkwood, of Iowa, called the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. Sumner) to account for calling disloyal a provision which was also contained in the constitution of Iowa.

Mr. Sumner said he had not referred to Iowa, but he reiterated that the proposed constitution was disgraceful.

After further discussion and various motions. Mr. Fessenden called attention to the small number present of the advocates of the bill, and on motion, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. McKee introduced a resolution requesting Committee on the Judiciary to inquire into the expediency of increasing the salary of the Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Kentucky. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Upson, of Michigan, introduced a bill supplementary to an act increasing the pension of revolutionary pensions, appoved April 1st, 1866, which was referred to the Committee on Pensions.

Mr. Maynard, of Tennessee, rose to a personal explanation. A corrected statement was made a day or two ago to the effect that a young man named Nelson, of Tennessee, had been indicted for homicide in North Carolina while he was on a raid with General Stoneman; that the Governor of North Carolina had demanded the body of Wilson from the Governor of Tennessee. He (Mr. Maynard) had been informed by the Governor of North Carolina that he had never made any such demand; the information had been obtained from Governor Brownlow and from Captain Nelson himself.

Mr. Phelps introduced a resolution, which was agreed to, instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of so amending the Internal Revenue laws as to dispense with the taxes on gross receipts.

Mr. Ingersoll introduced a resolution directing the Committee on Indian Affairs to examine into bills for certain goods, wares and merchandize for the Indian Bureau, and to examine samples, and ascertain whether the contract was awarded to the lowest bidder. An objection was made and the resolution was laid over.

Mr. Wentworth introduced a resolution, which was agreed to, calling upon the President for all the information in his possession, relative to Geo. St. Leger Grangett, who was charged with complicity in the attempt to release prisoners from Camp Douglas. Agreed to.

Mr. Driggs, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported back the bill amendatory of the act, approved March 31, 1863, granting lands to the State of Kansas for the construction of a railroad and telegraph line.

After discussion, it was recommitted.

Mr. Holmes, from the same Committee, reported a bill amendatory, of second section of the act to authorize the Legislatures of Illinois, Kansas and Arkansas to sell lands heretofore donated for school purposes. The amendment allows a lease of mineral lands for fifteen years. It was passed.

The House went into Committee on the Civil Appropriation bill. The Clerk proceeded to read the bill from the point where he left off yesterday, viz: the paragraph appropriating $18,800 for compensation to the Private Secretary, Assistant Secretary, short-hand writer, Clerk of Pardons, three clerks of fourth class, Stewart and Messenger of the President of the United States.

Mr. Grinnell moved to strike out Clerk of Pardons. The House having failed to obtain a list of pardons, he thought the services of a clerk might very well be dispensed with hereafter.

Mr. Wentworth, of Illinois, was opposed to the motion to strike out. The House had called upon the President for a list of the pardons already granted, and of course it would be impossible for him to make it out with his own hands. (Laughter.) He had seen it announced in some of the Southern papers, that the Legislature of Florida, which was the legislature of traitors there, had gone to the Dry Tortugas and had been investigating into the claims of prisoners there for pardons, and had taken up the case of a notorious leader in the attempt that was made to burn Chicago some time ago, and decided that his conviction had been obtained by perjured witnesses, etc. Everybody knew that there had been a conspiracy to liberate the prisoners in Camp Douglas just before the elections of that year, and take possession of the polls, and then burn the city of Chicago. One of the men convicted of participation in that conspiracy had killed himself; the other had been sent to Dry Tortugas and now the President was besought to pardon him.

Mr. Wentworth did not want the pardoned clerk dismissed, until he should have obtained a report on this one case at least. (Laughter.)

Mr. Schofield said he had been told during last session, that upon each pardon sent South there was a charge of three hundred dollars.

Mr. Ward, of New York, remarked that it was cheap enough. (Laughter.)

Mr. Schofield went on to say that he had also been informed by a gentleman who had been living in the South, that a great many pardons had been sent down there by the Adams Express, with the request to collect on delivery three hundred dollars, and that the money had been collected and sent North. He did not himself assert that the statement was true, because he did know it to be so, but if it was true he supposed the money had been received by the pardon agents. If they were so well paid he thought the pardon clerk ought to be dealt with liberally. [Laughter.] The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. Benjamin, of Mo., moved an amendment to the bill that no Assessor or Collector shall be entitled to any portion of the salary pertaining to the office until he be confirmed by the Senate.

After debate the amendment was adopted and the House adjourned.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Another Lamp Explosion—Two Persons Burned to Death.

On Friday last, the 14th instant, a most distressing calamity occurred at the residence of Ephraim Hall, South Buffalo township, Armstrong county. Mrs. Hall and two daughters were seated at a table, on which a lamp was burning, sewing. From some cause an explosion occurred, and the burning fluid was scattered in every direction. The clothing of the daughters was immediately ignited, and in an instant they were enveloped in flames. Mrs. Hall rushed to the assistance of her daughters, and endeavored to extinguish the flames, but was unable to do so, and in her efforts she was shockingly burned about the hands and face. Some few minutes after the explosion, Mr. Hall returned home, but was too late to rescue his unfortunate children. Their clothing was almost entirely consumed, and their bodies burned in a shocking manner. Death ensued in a few minutes after he reached home. Assistance was speedily summoned, and Mrs. Hall's injuries attended to. She was able to speak, and related the particulars of the sad casualty. Her injuries were found to be of a more serious character than at first supposed, and her recovery is considered impossible. The cause of the explosion remains a mystery. The lamp was sitting on the table, and had not been moved or handled for some time previous to the explosion. The force of the explosion shattered the lamp into fragments.

The above account is that transmitted by a neighbor of the unfortunate family. We do not think the cause of the explosion so very "mysterious." It was undoubtedly owing to the use of the adulterated carbon oil; and these explosions, scattering death and sorrow in thousands of households, will continue until the most stringent measures are adopted to prevent the sale or manufacture of the villainous compound. Scarcely a day passes, but we notice in our exchanges an "accident" from this cause, more or less serious in its consequences.

Cool Proceedings.

On Tuesday afternoon at about two o'clock, officer John Messner, of the Independent police, brought to the Mayor's office a man named Jacob Abbey, charged with attempted larceny. The accused had gone, a short time previously, into a clothing store on Market street, being in his shirt sleeves. He asked to see some good coats and vests, and when those garments were shown him, he fitted himself with the best of each. Having done so he quietly turned to go out, saying, as he did so, "These suit me, I guess I'll keep them." The merchant respectfully reminded his customer that he had forgotten to pay for his clothes. Abbey responded that "it made no difference, it was all right." The dealer couldn't see it, however, and detained the unprofitable customer until officer Messner arrived. The clothing was returned and the prisoner was taken to the lock-up. It was observed that he wore a pair of new boots, and investigation revealed the fact that just previous to entering the clothing store he had gone into the boot and shoe store of Palmer, Anschutz & Co., No. 61 Market street to examine some boots. He tried on several pairs, and at length finding a pair that fitted him, he marched out of the store, getting safely away before the clerks were aware of the original manner in which he had made his purchase. The boots were returned, and Abbey locked up for a hearing. His demeanor from the moment of his arrest was of a most singular character, and he had been in the cell but a short time, before it became manifest that he was laboring under an attack of mania a potu, and that his "appropriations," instead of being the deliberate thefts they seemed, were but the vagaries of a mind diseased in the most horrible manner. He is a resident of Allegheny, and is an employee of Messrs. Lieber & Gilmer, trunk manufacturers, on Wood street. He still remains locked up, and is violent at times. He is receiving such medical treatment as he can receive there.

Row in An Oyster Saloon—A Rough on the Rampage.

On Tuesday night, at about twelve o'clock, a party of four young men, among whom was a rough named "Curly" Leslie, entered the oyster saloon in the basement of the Grant House, Allegheny, kept by Mr. Lewis Walter. The party were boisterous, and commenced making loud demands. Leslie in particular, loudly called for pickles. Mr. Walter, who was passing a plate of oysters to a gentleman present, told him he should have the pickles in a moment. Leslie was angry and caught at the plate. He was prevented from taking it, however, and a moment afterwards Mr. Walters handed him a plate of pickles. Leslie seized the plate and threw it at the head of Mr. Walters, and commenced a breaking up of things. Mr. Seely, proprietor of the Grant House, heard the disturbance and came down stairs; he ordered Leslie out, and before the latter could resist, put him into the hall. There a brief struggle ensued, and when Mr. Seely returned he was bleeding profusely from three stabs in the right cheek, a severe cut in the cartilage of the nose and a stab in the left side. Dr. Thorn was immediately called in, and dressed the wounded man's injuries. Leslie escaped for the time being, but was arrested yesterday, and taken before Mayor Morrison. He had a partial hearing and was held for a further hearing to-day.

Benefit of the Treasurer.—On Saturday evening Harry Overington, Esq., the well known and universally popular Treasurer at the Pittsburgh Theatre, is to receive a benefit—his first this season. The bill for the occasion has not yet been made up, but will comprise most popular and taking features. Harry is an unbounded favorite and his benefit will be celebrated by an overwhelmingly crowded house.

The Hebrew Benevolent Society—Grand Banquet.

The Hebrew Benevolent Society of Allegheny County, celebrated its first anniversary last evening, by a magnificent banquet, given at Ashland Hall, on Wylie street. A large and elegant company assembled at about eight o'clock, at the Hall mentioned. Over five hundred persons gathered in the apartment. Fully one-half present were ladies. Among those in the Hall we observed, Rev. Numberg, Hon. W. C. McCarthy, Hon. John Morrison, Hon. John M. Kirkpatrick, Josiah Cohen, Esq., besides a large number of other well known citizens.

The assemblage was called to order by Mr. Odelheim, President of the Benevolent Society, and the evening was inaugurated with prayer by Rev. Mr. Numberg, Pastor of the Hebrew Congregation. After the prayer the splendid band of Smith & Toerge discoursed their best music, and to the strains, the company took seats at the magnificently furnished tables. It has seldom been our fortune to partake of a more elegant, bountiful and altogether delightful banquet than that of last evening, illuminated as it was by the smiles of beautiful women, musical with merry laughter and the clinking of glasses, and the more substantial rattling of knives and forks, and tempting with rich viands and rare wines.

After the company had done ample and appreciative justice to the banquet, silence was requested, and A. Roedemein, Esq., President of the Association, made a few remarks to those assembled. For the first time the Hebrew Benevolent Society of Allegheny county had followed the example of older and richer associations, and had sought to promote its objects by a banquet. So far as could now be seen, the project had been a complete success. A large share of this success was due, as is always the case, to the efforts of the ladies. They now, as always, have proved themselves ready and eager to do everything possible for the relief and succor of the poor, the widow and the orphan. It was with sorrow that he announced that one who for three years had devoted the entire energies of his heart and soul to the cause for which this Society was formed—the Secretary of the Association, Mr. Affelder, has tendered his resignation, and is about severing his connection with the Association to re-visit his native place. The President then read the first regular toast;

"The Hebrew Benevolent Society of Allegheny County."

This was responded to at some length in the Hebrew tongue by Rev. Numberg, pastor of the Hebrew congregation. The second toast was:

"The President of the United States." Music by the band, "Hail to the Chief." The next toast was:

"The Ladies." Mr. Coblens responded in eloquent and fitting terms. Mr. C., in conclusion, proposed: "Woman—Heaven's last best gift to man," which was received with applause and drank with enthusiasm.

The fourth regular toast was: "Our National Union, as represented by Congress." (Loud applause.) Music by the band, "Hail Columbia."

The fifth toast, "The Bench and the Bar," was most happily and wittily responded to by Hon. J. M. Kirkpatrick. Mr. Kirkpatrick's remarks were received with loud applause. In conclusion he called on Robert Patrick, Esq., who responded briefly.

The sixth toast—Charity—was responded to most eloquently and effectively by Josiah Cohen, Esq., who, in the course of his remarks, recited a beautiful and touching poem with Charity for its subject. In conclusion Mr. Cohen proposed: "The municipalities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny." Mayor Morrison, of Allegheny, was called up, but declined responding, urging that Hon. J. M. Kirkpatrick should respond. The latter declined, and brief but fitting acknowledgments were made by their Honors, W. C. McCarthy and J. Morrison. Josiah Cohen, Esq., then proposed the healths of the President and Secretary of the Association. This was responded to briefly by Messrs. Roedelheimer and Affeldy.

Mr. Affelbaum then sang, with the inimitable effect for which he is so well known, several songs, one of which—"The Tear"—was received with rapturous applause.

The sentiment—"The Press"—was next proposed by J. Cohen, Esq., and responded to briefly by T. P. Houston, Esq., who was happy in knowing that, after toasting the Bench and Bar, the company had now toasted an honest profession.

Hon. J. M. Kirkpatrick proposed "The Medical Profession." This was happily responded to by Dr. G. L. M'Cook. At the conclusion of this gentlemen's remarks, the company adjourned to the ball room up stairs, and there, until "wee sma' hours ayont the twal" they merrily passed the time in the mazes of the light fantastic art. Much money was realized, and the Benevolent Society achieved renewed success.

Murder of a Pittsburgher in Louisville.

We have referred in the GAZETTE to the murder at Louisville, on Saturday night last of John T. H. Smith, formerly of this city. The Louisville Journal of Monday, gives the annexed particulars of poor Smith's sad fate:

Smith was a native of New York State, and on the 18th day of November, 1864, was married at Utica, New York, to Hattie E. Marsh. At the time of his marriage Smith was Inspector in the United States army, and stationed at Utica, where he made Miss Hattie Marsh's acquaintance. When he was discharged from the service, Smith came to Cincinnati, and from thence to Pittsburgh. Having acquired intemperate habits, his employers were compelled to discharge him. So trifling did he become, his wife, who loved him dearly, was forced to separate from him, and, in a letter from her to his mother, found upon his person, occurs this significant sentence: "John is in Pittsburgh, and doing well now. He does not know where I am, and if he should happen to come, you must not tell him, for he will only do well for a month or so, and then be worse than ever. I can't trust him." She is now, or was at the date of her last letter, found upon his body, living in Cincinnati.

The following letters found upon poor Smith explain themselves:

"CINCINNATI, Aug. 20, 1866.

To whom it may concern:—This is to certify that the bearer of this, Mr. John T. H. Smith, was in our employ as hardware finisher from January 3, 1866, to April 21, 1866, and in that capacity gave general satisfaction. Having no vacancy for him at this time, we recommend him to any one needing his services.

JAMES L. HAVEN & CO."

With the above, Smith returned to Pittsburgh and entered into the employ of Little, Baird & Co. again, but his intemperate habits, after a short trial, again compelled them to discharge him. Returning to Cincinnati he professed to reform, and wrote to his late employers at Pittsburgh to either employ or recommend him. The following is their reply:

"PITTSBURGH, September 12, 1866.

John T. H. Smith, Esq.:—DEAR SIR,—We are in receipt of yours (without date) and in reply would say that if you had kept sober, we have no doubt that you would have been in our employ at this time, but your getting on that spree was the cause of our discharging you. As to your honesty and energy we have never had cause to complain.

Mr. Smith, take our advice, and forever leave off the tasting of liquor, and we have no doubt you will succeed in life. You have the best wishes of the firm for your future success.

Yours truly, LITTLE, BAIRD & PATTON."

Alas! the poor fellow did not act upon the advice contained in the last paragraph, and at eleven o'clock on Saturday night met his death while in a state of intoxication, being murdered in cold blood by a ruffian named Williams, alias "Bud" Whitesides.

A Coroner's jury investigated the affair, and from testimony elicited it seems that Whitesides had promised to pay Smith's fare on the ferryboat, but afterwards refused to do so, because, as he asserts, Smith told him he had five hundred dollars about his person. On Smith's denying his having made any such statement, Whitesides knocked him down and stamped him to death. The murderer has been arrested.

Alf. Burnett's Readings.

To-morrow evening the wonderful elocutionist and accomplished poet and scholar, Alf. Burnett, will give his first literary entertainment under the auspices of the Public Catholic Library Association, at Masonic Hall. Mr. Burnett has long stood head and shoulders above his profession in America, and has received the universal verdict of the public that he is the greatest and most polished reader in this country. As a facial contortionist, we believe he would put the blush of shame to a Grimaldi. He made a glorious record during the late war, following the brave boys where danger most abounded, and by his cheerful nature keeping up their spirits all along the line. He will certainly be greeted by a crowded house to-morrow night, as he has ever been a great favorite in Pittsburgh. His programme embraces recitations of sketches containing wit, humor and pathos. The recently introduced sermon of Petroleum V. Nasby is said to be fun provoking and side splitting. There will be no reserved seats. On Saturday night he gives his final reading.

Triumph Oil Company.

We learn from our Tideoute correspondent, that on the land, about two hundred and thirty-seven acres, owned by the company in fee, there have lately been obtained several fine wells, viz: Nos. 234 and 241, each yielding two hundred and fifty barrels per day. No. 237 is pumping one hundred barrels, and increasing every day. No. 239 just began pumping, promises to be fully up to the others. No. 212 is being tested, with a fine show of oil. Four other wells are down at least four hundred feet, and quite a number are down from one hundred to three hundred feet, and are being vigorously pushed. Such facts as these will notwithstanding the low price of oil, make the stock of the "Triumph" valuable.

The Fair at Excelsior Hall.—The attendance at the Fair and Festival of the Christian Church, at Excelsior Hall, Allegheny, last night far exceeded that of the previous evening; a number of interesting articles were added to the stock on sale, and the goods offered readily found purchasers. The dinner served yesterday was fully up to the standard, A, No. 1. To-day at twelve, a similar table will be set, to which the public patronage is invited. A visit to the Hall, day or night, will amply repay the trouble of going, and aid at the same time in a good cause. For a printed list of articles offered for sale, see advertisement in another column.

Criminal Court.

Yesterday morning the Criminal Court opened at the usual hour, Judges Mellon and Stowe occupying the bench.

The trial of John Dougan, on a charge of incestuous adultery, which was reported in progress yesterday, was concluded, and the case submitted to the jury. They returned a verdict of not guilty, and directed that the prosecutor, Patrick Brown, pay the cost of prosecution.

The next case was that of Wm. Arnett, Albert Carter, Charles Cole, Alfred Sidney, Henry Grant and Robert Jackson, all colored, who were arraigned on an indictment for feloniously shooting a white boy named Thomas Cook. The shooting occurred on the first of August last, beyond the Iron City Park, Lawrenceville. On that day the colored people were celebrating the West Indies emancipation, and the defendants were at the Park on horseback.

During the afternoon they rode out of the park and up the road. They met two wagons, loaded with lumber, which were being driven along the road. Some difficulty ensued in regard to the right of way, when a fight ensued. The men on the wagons used abusive language and threw stones. According to the statement of the accused, and Wm. Arnett, one of the defendants, drew a revolver and fired at the teamsters, the ball striking young Cook, who was seated on one of the wagons. The indictment charges Arnett with having done the shooting, and the others were indicted for being present, aiding and abetting him. Messrs. Marshall, Kirkpatrick and C. B. Smith appeared for the defendants, and District Attorney Duff and Gen. Collier for the prosecution.

The jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of Albert Carter, Charles Cole, Alfred Sidney, Henry Grant and Robert Jackson, and found William Arnett guilty, but recommended him to the mercy of the Court. The acquitted prisoners were released, and Arnett was remanded to jail.

The next case was that of Harrison White, Thomas Cook, Wm. Cook and Wm. Crookshanks, indicted for aggravated assault and battery, with Henry Grant and Charles Cole as prosecuting witnesses. The defendants in this case are those who formed the party with whom the defendants in the case just reported had the difficulty on the 1st of August, and the alleged assault was committed in the course of that affray. The prosecutors were defendants in the other case. The testimony and the arguments of counsel were concluded just before the time of adjournment. The jury will be charged this morning.

PITTSBURGH AND CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD.

We have already spoken of the situation in which this great enterprise was placed by the act of April, 1864, repealing the charter of the company on all that portion of the route lying southeast of Connellsville. We now propose to refresh the memory of our readers as to the road itself, and its connections.

The Pittsburgh and Connellsville Rail road begins at the foot of Grant street, on the bank of the Monongahela river, in the city of Pittsburgh. It follows the northeast bank of that river fourteen miles to the borough of McKeesport, where the Youghiogheny unites with the Monongahela. Thence the road follows the valley of the Youghiogheny to Connellsville, forty-four and a half miles, making the whole distance from Pittsburgh to Connellsville fifty-eight and a half miles. This part of the road has been finished and open to the public for several years, and is at this moment doing a large and profitable business. It has added vastly to the business and to the permanent valuation of the country through which it passes, and is of great benefit to these cities.

Yet it is but a local road. The prime object of the enterprise—a direct connection with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad at the town of Cumberland, in Maryland—is still unaccomplished. The universal financial crisis which culminated in 1857, and which so seriously affected all railroad enterprises for several years, compelled a suspension of operations upon this line, except such as were necessary to complete the line between this city and Connellsville, and prosecute steadily the work on the great Sand Patch tunnel. In 1861 the completion of the section between Turtle Creek and Pittsburgh gave us a continuous and independent connection by rail with Connellsville, and, by a branch, with Uniontown.

The great controversy, however, is about that part of the line lying between Connellsville and Cumberland. The length of that division is ninety miles, and the whole of it, except about seven miles, lies within our own State. From Connellsville the line continues up the Youghiogheny nearly 25 miles to the mouths of Casselman's River, and Laurel Hill Creek. After ascending the valley of the latter stream some three miles, it crosses the ridge dividing that valley from that of the Casselman. Here there is a short tunnel. Thence it follows the valley of the last named stream thirty miles to the great Sand Patch tunnel, passing south of the town of Somerset, to which a branch road, eight miles in length, and of easy grade, has been located. The line of the road crosses the State line, into Maryland, just at the southwest corner of Bedford county, and about seven miles this side of Cumberland.

The highest grade on any part of this road is seventy-eight feet to the mile, and that only on less than three miles on each side of the summit. From Pittsburgh to Myers' Mills, some three miles from the summit, the grade in no place need exceed twenty-six feet to the mile. From the summit to Cumberland, a distance of thirty-two miles, down the valley of Will's Creek, there is a continuous descending grade. For the greater part of the line, where there is any grade at all, it is kept at or below 26 feet. Now that the great tunnel, of which we spoke yesterday, is almost completed, there is no difficult work on this ninety miles of road from Connellsville to Cumberland.

At Cumberland, as before observed, this road will form a junction with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, 178 miles west of Baltimore, making the entire distance from Pittsburgh to Baltimore, by this route, 327 miles, and to Washington, via the Relay House, nine miles this side of Baltimore, 349 miles.

But it will not be necessary to take that route to Washington; for, at an earlier day than this road can be possibly be completed, the "METROPOLITAN ROUTE," from the "Point of Rocks," (70 miles west of Baltimore,) to Washington, will be finished. The distance, by this route, from Point of Rocks to Washington is only 43 miles. This will be 49 miles less than to go round by the Relay House, and will make the whole distance from Pittsburgh to Washington just three hundred miles—27 miles nearer than to Baltimore by this route. This shortens the distance between Pitsburgh and Washington seventy-four miles, as compared with the present route of travel, via Harrisburg and Baltimore. The trip can be made from city to city in ten hours, and the traveler avoid the vexatious and often expensive delays to which he is now subjected.

Cumberland is 97 miles west of Harper's Ferry, and 101 miles east of Grafton, where the two great branches of the Baltimore and Ohio road diverge, one to Wheeling, and the other to Parkersburg. From Parkersburg to Cumberland the distance is 205 miles; from Wheeling it is 201 miles, and from Pittsburgh 149 miles.

At Pittsburgh this road meets all the great western and northern lines which concentrate here, as well as our great natural thoroughfare, the Ohio river. But its most direct and important connection at this point will be with the CLEVELAND AND MAHONING EXTENSION, which will be tantamount to an extension of the road to the lakes, to the Mississippi, and, in short, to the entire continent west of Pennsylvania, as far as railroads have been or shall be extended. This Cleveland and Mahoning Extension, like the section between Connellsville and Cumberland, is but a comparatively short link in the great chain reaching from the Chesapeake Bay, the Potomac, the National Capital, and the seaboard cities of the South, to the vast region just spoken of. This additional chain of communication is now greatly needed, and its necessity will be more and more felt as population and business increase.

Pennsylvania has no right to shut this avenue. It is a gift of the Creator, not to Pennsylvania, and still less to a Pennsylvania corporation, but to all the American people; and if the people of Maryland and Ohio say they wish to improve it, so that they can use it as an avenue of communication one with another, for purposes of trade and social intercourse, what right have we, as a State, to forbid it? But the real case is still stronger than the one we have supposed; for a million Pennsylvanians unite with the people of Maryland and Ohio in desiring this thing, and are ready to do the work required as soon as they can get legal permission to do it.

An interdict upon such an enterprise as this, come from what authority it may—even though it be from the representatives of the people, and surrounded by all the forms of republican institutions—has in it the essence of despotic oppression, and bears all the features that may define a tyranny. But when the interdict is accompanied by an outrageous act of spoliation, as in the case before us, it becomes doubly odious. Were a single ruler to do such a thing, it would tarnish his reputation, dishonor his memory, and history would enroll him among wrong-doers and oppressors. Is wrong less infamous because perpetrated by many than if it were done by one? Surely not. While speaking of this thing as we do, we would not forget that an apology for the original wrong may be found in the presumption that the men who divested the Company of its franchises believed at the time that they had been forfeited. But now we know, and our representatives know, that they were not forfeited. A refusal on their part, therefore, to rectify the error of their predecessors, would be a dereliction for which no apology could be offered.

A MONTH AGO the Democratic journals professed to have discovered a conspiracy having for its object the election of General CAMERON to the United States Senate by a coalition of Republican and Democratic members of the Legislature. These journals, as by pre-concert, joined in expressing great indignation at what they were pleased to denominate an experiment upon the political virtue of their friends. They seemed to suspect them of an inherent weakness, whereby they were unable to resist a pecuniary inducement. General CAMERON promptly denied that he was concerned in the enterprise attributed to him, or that he designed to be engaged in any such exploit, and there the matter ended.

Recently the Democratic newspapers profess to have discovered another conspiracy. They now charge that the friends of Governor CURTIN, dispairing of electing him to the Senate, will submit overtures to the Democratic members, proposing to unite with them on Mr. W. M. MEREDITH. This allegation is said to rest on "a private letter from a prominent politician at Chambersburg." We think there is just as much, and no more, foundation for this report than former one—and that is just none at all.

THAT Mr. Raymond, in the New York Times, should be found supporting Mr. Stevens's North Carolina bill as a proposition that could not "be more generous or more conservative," answers to one of those eddies in the swift current of politics that quite confounds one and impels him to ask—what next?—Commercial.

In essential elements, we do not perceive wherein the case of the Times differs from that of the Commercial. Each of them followed the President and advocated his Policy, until gulfs of financial and political ruin yawned before them. That the Commercial turned back soonest is not due to its larger development of conscientiousness, nor to its acuter intellectual perceptions, but solely to the fact that Allegheny was less favorable than New York to charlatanism of that description. Our contemporary ought to understand that it cannot, in this matter, hold up the Times to scorn without drawing universal hissing upon itself.

EDITORIAL BREVITIES.

IT is announced that a large manufacturing company in Chicago employs a young lady only thirteen years of age as paymaster. She has paid out since last May a quarter of a million of dollars, keeping the time-sheets, pay roll, and a private account book with and for each of three to four hundred men employed. She receives the money weekly from the bank to the amount of $4,000 to $5,000, pays all the men and settles her balances with the cashier. She knows every man in the establishment, and commands a salary of $625 per annum, takes two music lessons each week, and attends an evening course at a commercial college, where she has a scholarship. Nor does this produce any overstrain of her intellect. She is said to be in the most robust and vigorous health.

WE fully concur with the Cleveland Herald that the managers of the Western Press Association did not add to their reputation for fairness, good sense or decent manners, at the late meeting at Chicago. They exhibited all the blemishes of the New York Association with none of its redeeming qualities. Mr. E. Brooks, of the New York Express, by his superior bearing, would have put them all to the blush, if they had been capable of blushing.

IN Kentucky the Confederates and Conservatives, who naturally acted together last year, are finding some difficulties in the way of farther co-operation. Each of these factions is afraid of being ignored by the other. It is now proposed to reduce them to harmony by holding up the Radicals as an object of mutual detestation. On the other hand, it is proposed to organize an unconditional Union party, and "fight it out on that line."

A BILL has been introduced in the House providing that hereafter Congressional elections shall be held on the same day in all the States, viz: On Tuesday after the first Monday in November in 1868, and in every second year thereafter. This is the day on which the majority of the Northern States now hold elections. Provision will be made in another bill for those States which have not chosen members of the Fortieth Congress.

PATRICK FARRELL, a desperate villain of New York City, died on Monday last from the effects of a bullet wound inflicted by a policeman. He was discovered at an early hour Sunday morning endeavoring to force an entrance into a grocery store, and was shot by the policeman. He told the officer previous to his death that he freely forgave him, as he had only discharged his duty.

THE Supreme Court of the United States has decided that, even in time of war, Military Commissions for the trial of offenders are illegal. The Court has but one step more to take, which is, to decide that in time of war it is illegal for the military to kill or wound any body.

IN some of the remoter parishes of Louisiana, blacks are still held as slaves. Recently, two planters were brought before the Freedmen's Bureau for holding slaves and whipping them as in the olden time.

THERE will be a large demand for laborers, after the 1st of January next, on the Le Claire Marine Railway, at Davenport, Iowa. Three dollars per day wages are now paid.

THE Chillicothe (Ohio) Advertiser says some new disease has attacked the potatoes in that section, and they are rotting with alarming rapidity.

MRS. NUGENT, who killed her child and tried to kill herself, at Parkersburg, has not been visited in prison by any of her family friends from Marietta.

GOV. A. J. HAMILTON, of Texas, has located in Harrisburg, Pa., and will soon commence the practice of law there.

IT looks as if General Harriman would become the Republican candidate for Governor of New Hampshire.

FENIAN PRESIDENT ROBERTS wrote to Col. Lynch a sympathizing letter in which he says: "I regret to tell you that I do not believe you are to be hanged." Poor consolation that, but the Fenians are all praying ardently that the prisoners in Canada under sentence of death be hanged, as a few martyrs to their cause is necessary.

MR. BANDMANN has published a card in the Quincy, Illinois, papers, complaining of a personal attack in one of the journals, and of the support he received at the theatre. In "Hamlet," he says, "the parts of Laertes and the Ghost were played by one actor, as well as Polonius and the grave-digger. Rosencrantz and Guildenstern were performed by ladies, one of whom arose from the grave to appear as Osric."

UNTIL lately it was supposed that the relative weight of the brain, as compared with the body, was greater in man than in any of the lower animals; but alas! for poor human nature, it is now known that some of the smaller South American monkeys have, proportionately, a larger share of brain than ourselves.—Phila. Bulletin.

What a sad confession!

IT is stated that the extensive machinery of the New York Central Railroad is to be no longer used for the benefit of the democratic party. Its influence under the management of Dean Richmond was potent. The road employs 6,000 hands and has a capital of $26,000,000.

IN Columbus, Ohio, according to the police reports, there are fifty six brothels and 257 salvers and dram shops.

THE Legislature of Georgia has repealed all the laws denying foreigners the privilege of holding real estate.

THE Galveston, Texas, Literary Association has invited Horace Greeley to become one of its lecturers.

MR. AND MRS. HOWARD PAUL are to open their drawing room entertainments at Washington, shortly.

IN Virginia black people, convicted of crimes, are still sold into slavery by order of Court.

The United States Senatorship, in Connection With the Suggested Project of a Mass Meeting.

Messrs. Editors Gazette: I see it intimated in one of the morning papers that a project is on foot to have a mass-meeting called, for the purpose of obtaining an expression of the popular choice for Senator in the approaching contest.

If our Harrisburg delegates are anxious to ascertain the true preference of the people, let them take the matter in hand, and invite a county convention. Party usage, very properly, has fixed upon this method as the most nearly perfect one to arrive at a true expression of the popular opinion. Mass-meetings are at best but mob assemblies, from which no body ever expects to receive a sober delivery, and when a serious purpose is contemplated, no man and no party of men, unless conscious of the utter weakness of their cause, ever resorts to them. The delegates can control the matter. They will be held as the accountable party in it, and as they are known to be gentlemen, anxious to meet the wishes of their constituents, it is expected that they will assume the responsibility and act accordingly.

HARDICK'S
Patent Double-Acting
STEAM PUMP
AND
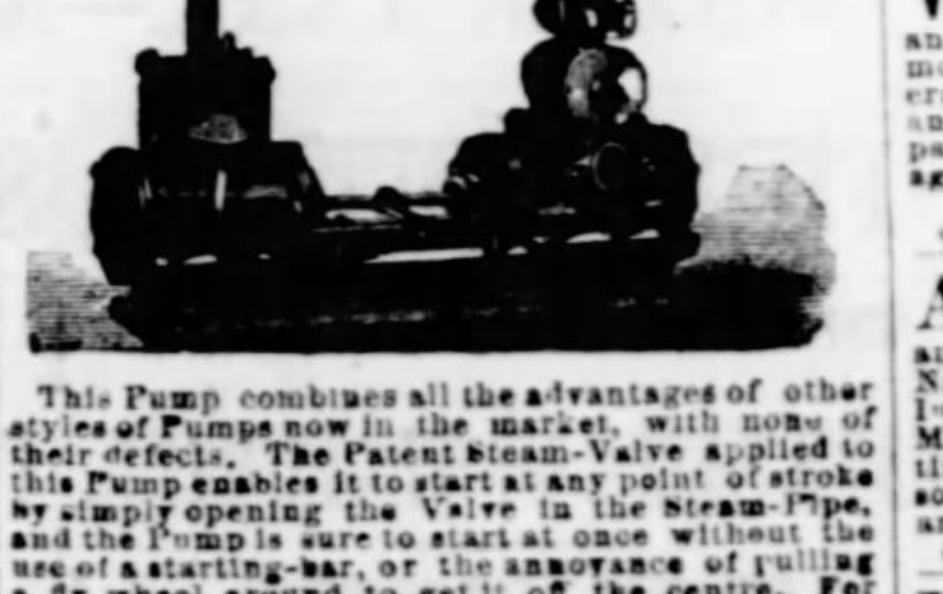
FOR PUMPING
WATER, CRUDE AND REFINED OIL



This Pump combines all the advantages of other styles of Pumps now in the market, with none of their defects. The Patent Steam-Valve applied to this Pump enables it to start at any point of stroke by simply opening the Valve in the Steam-Pipe, and the Pump is sure to start at once without the use of a starting-bar, or the annoyance of pulling a fly wheel around to get it off the centre. For Mining purposes this Pump is peculiarly adapted, as the Valves can be removed by unscrewing one nut, and the Valve-Chest cleaned in a few minutes. As the Pump is simple in its whole construction, it does not require the neighborhood of a machine shop to keep it in working order. The Valve-Chest and Valves are made of brass or composition, and can be easily repaired or replaced when worn out. Any carpenter can make, in a few minutes, of some heavy wood, a set of Valves for this Pump, if the original ones should give out. As a Boiler Feeder, it has no superior, as it can be made to run at any speed, either slow or fast, to suit the work it has to perform. The undersigned respectfully solicit the attention of their numerous customers and the public in general to the merits of this Pump, and desire those wishing such an article to call on GREAT SALE OF ORIGINAL AND VALUABLE OIL PAINTINGS, the Genuine Art Productions of Distinguished American and Foreign Artists.—FRIDAY MORNING, December 21st, at 10 o'clock, and to be continued in the evening at 7½ o'clock, will be sold, on second floor of Commercial Sales Rooms, 106 Smithfield street, (side entrance also from Fifth street,) a magnificent collection of genuine Art Productions, by distinguished American and Foreign Artists, to which the attention of connoisseurs and lovers of fine arts is confidently invited. The paintings were mostly purchased by Mr. Gabrylewitz directly from the artists, and in some cases painted from sketches made exclusively for him. Among the artists represented are Sontag, Otto, Sommer, Hamilton, Sheridan Young, J. Wilson Nicholson, Moran, Searby, Faulkner, Juilard, Carl Zuitz, Paul Weber, Starkenborgh, and many others equally eminent. These are not copies, nor furniture pictures, such as usually sold, but carefully labored originals of great artists. The superb Fine Art Collection from which Mr. Gabrylewitz made sale in our city last Spring, will be remembered by those who visited it on days of exhibition or sale, as being the first public offer of genuine Art Production in this city. The Paintings will now remain open to the free inspection of the public, every day and evening, until sale. NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Assault by Robbers.

The Titusville Herald tells the following story: On Thursday evening, about nine o'clock, Mr. R. C. P. Brown, the well-known Superintendent of the Great Republic Oil Company, had a very narrow escape from death, and returned the compliment by shooting and probably killing one of his assailants. The circumstances of the case were as follows: Mr. Brown was returning on horseback to this city from his ranche on Cherry Run. He had nearly reached the Fountain Inn, about a half mile from Pine Creek bridge. It was snowing hard, his hat was pulled over his eyes, and he was slowly walking his horse down the big hill east of the inn. The first indication Mr. Brown had of being molested was the seizure of his horse's bridle by a man who sprang from the side of the road. Mr. Brown attempted to draw his pistol, but at the same instant another man, stepping close to his side, presented a pistol at his breast and fired. The ball entered a leather pocket book containing a package of letters and a small ferrotype likeness, which were in his right breast pocket. The force of the concussion nearly unseated him, but he had drawn his revolver and placed it within a few inches of the other's breast, fired, and the man fell, uttering a single exclamation. His confederate had cut the horse's rein, but still held him by the bit. The animal dragged him a short distance and then broke away, bringing his rider to Titusville on the double-quick. Mr. Brown rode to the store of E. C. Sanderson, and having obtained his assistance and that of a friend, the three returned as soon as possible to the place of encounter. They found the snow marked with blood and in one place a large pool of blood, apparently a quart. There was a fresh wagon track and further evidences that the body had been lifted from the ground and carried away in that manner. They were unable, however, to trace the wagon on account of the falling snow. The city police yesterday started in pursuit and are now on the track of suspected parties. These statements are in no way exaggerated. Mr. Brown is well known in the oil region, and is recognized as a man of undisputed courage and integrity. He has enjoyed some reputation as a skillful pistol shot, but probably never put this accomplishment to a more critical test. He is warmly congratulated on his remarkable escape.

Enlargement of Forest County.

The bill enlarging the boundary of Forest county, passed by the last legislature, has been signed by the Governor since the election. The Commissioners appointed in the bill are: J. A. Leach, of Mercer county, Jacob Zeigler, of Butler county, and C. Fulkerson of Venango county, have held several meetings in reference to locating the line which is to cut off a portion of Venango county. The original bill contemplated taking what is known as the "Tionesta region" from Venango county, and attaching it to Forest. This embraced the townships of Kingsley, Harmony, Hickory, Tionesta, and Tionesta borough. The citizens of Harmony township are opposed to the measure. Under a supplement to the bill, the commissioners proposed to take a slice of Allegheny township, which is also opposed by the citizens. The constitutionality of the bill will most probably be tested before the Supreme Court. Tionesta will most likely be selected as the county seat of the reorganized county.

A Shoemaker Waxes Rich.

A shoemaker in Ohio, has seen the last of hard work and has had his little all handsomely increased. He will henceforth peg away at life without being hammered by adversity, and is in no danger of getting "strapped." The Lebanon Star mentions, that a Mr. Garwood, of Warren county, has fallen heir to an estate valued at $40,000, left by the recent death of an old relative in New Jersey. Mr. Garwood, we are told, is a very worthy old gentleman. He is a shoemaker, and has heretofore earned his bread by hard work. His neighbors think he is just the man who ought to fall heir to a little fortune. He has a wife living, but no children. $40,000 ought to make the old couple comfortable the balance of their lives.

Finding a Skeleton.

The Easton Express says: The skeleton of an unknown man was found a few days since, in a piece of woods near Aten's Ferry, in Upper Mount Bethel, by a party of men who were out hunting, and who chanced to be in that vicinity. The whole affair is shrouded in mystery, as no one appears to be able to account for it, in any way. No one seems to know who the person could have been, or how he got there, and how he came by his death. The skeleton bore the appearance of having been there for a considerable time—at least some months—as the body was entirely decomposed, and there was nothing left but the bones.

Forgery.

Sheriff Bysher, of Montgomery county, has been made the victim of a forgery to the amount of $331, the discovery of which was made only a few days ago. It appears that in October last, a check for that amount payable to the order of one Gleason, purporting to have been signed by the Sheriff, was cashed at the Montgomery National Bank. On last Thursday it was discovered that this check was a forgery. It had every appearance of genuineness, the signature being a perfect fac simile of the Sheriff's, and it is not surprising that the bank officers were deceived. The loss is, of course, borne by the bank.

Heavy Theft.

Sylvester H. Smith, of Bethlehem, previous to entering the 1:30 p. m. eastward bound train, at Easton depot, on Friday week, had his pocket picked of a wallet containing nearly eight hundred dollars. The conductor observed three men get on the train at Reading, whom he "spotted" as "light fingered gentry," and who answered the description given by Mr. Smith of the men who jostled him just before he entered the cars. At that time he was sensible of a pulling of his watch guard, but feeling for his watch he found it safe. After passing into the car, he searched in his pockets for the wallet—it was missing.

A Timely Pardon.—Charles Victor, a sergeant in the United States army was convicted at the last term of the Common Pleas of Cuyahoga county, Ohio, of manslaughter, in shooting Capt. Sinnott, and sentenced to the Penitentiary. He arrived at the Penitentiary on Monday, but there came with him his pardon, signed by Gov. Cox, and he was at once released under orders to report at once to his battery, now stationed at Fort Trumbull, Connecticut. Sergeant Victor is said to have been a good soldier.

Man Drowned.—The Venango Spectator says: On Wednesday forenoon of last week a man was seen floating down the river on a small raft without oars. Being unable to guide it in the swift current, the raft struck one of the piers of the Allegheny bridge and went to pieces. The unfortunate man, whose name is unknown, was thrown overboard by the shock and sunk to rise no more.

Skater Drowned.—A son of Edward D. White, of Spartansburg, aged about fourteen years, was drowned on Tuesday last, while skating on the mill pond near that town. The ice was so thin that assistance could not reach him, and the body was not recovered until a channel was cut through the ice and a boat pushed to the spot where he disappeared.

Columbus Wickedness.—Reports made by the proper officers to the Captain of the City Police, show that there are now in Columbus fifty-six houses of ill fame, and about two hundred and fifty-seven saloons and dram shops. The Journal says this may very appropriately be termed a damning record.

Hard Times Among the Laborers.—The laborers on the Lehigh Valley extension North, struck against a reduction of twenty-five cents per day, and were not at work on Monday. They say that with provisions so high they cannot keep their families on less than $2 a day.

New Bridge.—A splendid bridge is in course of erection at Bethlehem, across the Lehigh river, immediately above the old wagon bridge, to connect the new railroad of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company from Mauch Chunk, with the North Penn road from the city.

Rents in Oil City.—The people of Oil City are agitating the question of low rents. As an illustration of the present schedule, one piece of property which can be bought for $5,000 now rents for $2,500.

His Name.—John McSheffrey was the name of the unfortunate man who was recently run over and instantly killed, on the North Pennsylvania railroad, at Tioga station. His body was severed in twain.

An Object of Charity.—The Mercer Dispatch says an ex-commissioner of that county is at present very "extensively engaged in the starve business." He had better quit that and stave ahead.

A Heap.—The Delaware and Lackawana Railroad have forwarded to market during the season just closed, considerably over a million and a half tons of coal. Blaze away!

Decapitation.—All the school directors of Pine Grove township, Warren county, were recently turned out of office by Judge Johnson, for refusing to build a school-house.

Suicide of a Woman.—Mrs. Gumbert, of Beaver township, Jefferson county, Pa., committed suicide on the 3d inst., by jumping into a small stream of water near her home.

GENERAL NEWS.

—J. G. Baterson, of Harford, for $47,500, engages to erect at Gettysburgh a white shaft of Italian weather-proof marble forty-seven feet high, the statuary work of which has been already begun by Rogers, in Italy, and will be finished January 1, 1868. —John Bright says, in relation to the Atlantic Cable: "I regard what has been done as the most marvellous thing in human history. I think it more marvellous than the invention of printing, or, I am ready to say, than the voyages of the Genoese."

—Captain Mayne Reid, the novelist, is a bankrupt. His debts amount to $30,000. His failure is attributed to an unfortunate investment in real estate.

—The Bishop of Oxford has had himself photographed in the posture of benediction, exciting the disgust of Low churchmen.

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM MEXICO.

The French Troops to Remain Neutral—Narrow Escape of Maximilian.

NEW YORK, December 19.—Mexican dates of the 5th have been received. Bazine had issued a manifesto declaring that the French troops would hereafter remain neutral, taking no part whatever in Mexican affairs.

General Rodrigues with three hundred men dashed into Orizaba, on the 4th, and captured a lot of mules. He could easily captured the Emperor and his Ministers.

An anti-French and anti-American demonstration was held in Orizaba, when it was known that Maximilian would resume the throne.

The U. S. Court at Norfolk—Judge Underwood's Charge—When Chief Justice Will Hold a Court.

NORFOLK, December 19.—The United States District Court, Judge Underwood presiding, opened yesterday. Eighteen Grand jurors were present. Judge Underwood, in charging the jury, said their labors would be brief. Crime would principally occupy their attention. There would be several offenses against the revenue and postal laws, and a case of counterfeiting.

A case of arson under the Confiscation Act, United States vs. two brothers named Dawson, of Loudon, Virginia, was dismissed this morning.

It is uncertain when the Circuit Court will meet, as Chief Justice Chase has not yet made known his intentions respecting special sessions.

An Increased Tariff on Wool.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—A large delegation of wool growers had a protracted interview with Secretary McCulloch, and it is understood that he and Secretary Wells are both opposed to any additional duty on wool. The growers assured the Secretary that unless something was done to protect them against the present unjust tariff, they will be obliged to give up business. The House bill of last session is all the protection they require.

FOR SALE—400 Acres of Coal Land, lying immediately upon the Ohio River, 20 miles below Gallipolis, and 185 miles above Cincinnati. On the above tract is a four foot vein of Coal, which, for general purposes, is not surpassed. It is entirely different from the Southern Ohio Coal; contains but little sulphur, forges and cokes well, and for making steam cannot be excelled. The location being about midway from Pomeroy and Hanging Rock, must make it valuable for coaling boats. There is a water front of ¾ of a mile, with a good landing at all stages of the river. An entrance has been run in the hill about 300 feet, track finished to river, together with the necessary fixtures for mining and delivering coal afloat. On said tract is first-class double Portable Circular Saw Mill together with a Portable Grist Mill, all in good running order, and plenty of the very best oak, ash and poplar timber. Would sell one-half interest if desired, to a party with experience and capital for working same. JOHN D. BAILEY,

Excursion Tickets on the Pennsylvania Railroad for the Inauguration.

The following letter, received by Major Hart, of Harrisburg, chairman of the committee appointed by the Central Club of the Boys in Blue, to arrange the preliminaries for the participation of the surviving veterans of the late war in the inauguration of the Governor elect, shows that excursion tickets will be issued for that occasion by the Pennsylvania Railroad:

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD COMPANY,
OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT,
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 7, 1866.

MY DEAR SIR: In response to your inquiry, under date of 15th inst., as to what arrangement our company propose to make in the matter of excursion tickets for the inauguration, I beg to say that our General Ticket Agent, Mr. Gwinner, will arrange that excursion tickets be sold by our agents on the Pennsylvania Railroad and the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad to accommodate those desiring to go to Harrisburg to the inauguration.

Very respectfully yours,
THOMAS A. SCOTT, V. P.

Court of Common Pleas.

In this Court, before Judge Mellon, the following cases were disposed of:

Annie Bonsberger vs. Joseph Douglass. This was an action for slander, and after the jury had been sworn a non-suit was taken by plaintiff. A non-suit was also entered in the case of the Same vs. Robert Merriman, the action also being to recover damages for slander.

Daniel Norris vs. James A. Gibson. This was an action in debt to recover the amount of a promissory note. Verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $236 80, being the amount of note with interest accrued.

Jacob Fuchs vs. Charles Seibert's administrators. Action to recover the amount of a promissory note. Verdict for plaintiff for the sum of $1,292, amount of debt and interest.

Anna B. Willman vs. Augustus Willman. Action of ejectment, to recover possession of twenty acres of land in Franklin township. Verdict for plaintiff, with six cents damages and costs.

Court then adjourned until Thursday morning.

A Dishonest Domestic.

Some time ago a young girl of thirteen, named Mary Margaret Boyle, residing at Six Mile Ferry, went to live as a domestic in the family of Mr. William Harrison, at Oakland. Yesterday she was missing from the house of Mr. Harrison, and so were one sable victorine, one sable muff, one misses squirrel victorine, one plaid dress pattern, one blanket shawl, one plaid dress, and one black velvet hat, with a green plume. Information was promptly made before Mayor McCarthy, and officer Moon was placed upon the track. The officer proceeded to the residence of the girl's parents, at Six Mile Ferry, and not finding the girl there he took the road to Oakland. He soon met Mary on her road homeward. She had the stolen goods—except those that she wore—in a market basket on her arm. She, with her spoils, was speedily brought to the Mayor's office, but, as Mr. Harrison refused to prosecute, she was released after giving up the goods to the rightful owner.

A Disorderly Feminine.

Yesterday morning a colored woman named Margaret Ann Kelly, residing on Arthur street, appeared at the Mayor's office and preferred a charge of disorderly conduct against Eliza Butler, a colored neighbor. Mrs. Kelly stammeringly avered that "L-l-liza acted ou-ou-outrageous, and c-called her names that w-w-was abom'n-able." The alleged disorderly conduct dated back to to the 12th inst., but Mrs. Kelly declared she did not wish to prosecute Mrs. Butler while her husband was away, for that might be taking a mean advantage of her, so she waited until Mr. B. returned, and then, in his presence, called upon the rough Eliza to retract what she said, as otherwise the law must inevitably take its course. To her surprise and grief, Eliza "turned to" and abused her worse than ever. She therefore malignantly rushed to the Mayor's office and made the information. A warrant was issued.

Sleigh Stolen.

Some fellow of the "baser sort," yet alive to the glories of a sleigh ride on a moon light night, on Tuesday evening made off with the cutter of R. Fulton, Esq., from his premises on First street, below Market. Mr. Fulton had been out on the road, enjoying himself for some hours, and on his return he unhitched his horse and placed him in the stable, leaving his sleigh in front of his dwelling. About an hour after his return, he went out to put the sleigh in a more secure place than the public street, but, presto, it had disappeared. Some fellow had made way with it, and we next expect to hear of a runaway horse, stolen to fit the sleigh. An information of the fact was made at the Mayor's office.

Reckless Use of Water.

We have several times of late called the attention of our readers to the necessity of an economical use of water during the progress of the repairs, which the Water Works are undergoing and which are being pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. A man named Hill was yesterday morning summoned to appear before the Mayor to answer a charge of extravagant use of water from the Hydrant. He was reprimanded and discharged. It is best to be on the safe side, by a careful avoidance of wastefulness in this particular, as the law will not be sparing, if the people are not sparing of water.

District Court.—Before Hon. H. W. Williams, Associate Judge.

The following cases, by the consent of the parties interested, were referred to E. B. Todd, B. F. Lucas and J. H. Miller, Esqs., for adjustment: Franz Weinberger vs. M. W. Watson, et. al.; Joseph Spachtolz vs. same; Ferdinand Herst vs. same; Franz Hoffman vs. same; Anthony Artman vs. same; Theodore Bane vs. same.

There being no other cases ready for trial, Court adjourned until Thursday morning.

Delirium Tremens in the Lock-Up.—At the present time there are in the lock-up two cases of that terrible disease mania a potu. Besides Jacob Abbey, whose arrest for strange mercantile proceedings we have noticed elsewhere, Andrew McGuffy is also confined there with the delirium. He was picked up drunk on the street at about half-past one o'clock yesterday morning, and after being locked up, was found to be laboring under a violent attack of mania. He had in his possession $86 in money.

Partial Hearing.—Yesterday morning John Oliver, Wm. Evans, Patrick McCauley, and John Leonard, charged with having, on the 8th inst., stolen a gold watch worth $140, and three gold rings worth $10, from Paul Dusch, had a partial hearing before Mayor McCarthy, and were re-committed for a further hearing on Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

Held to Bail.—Michael Sangerfeld, charged before Alderman Taylor a day or two ago with an assault on Thomas Day, as reported by us, was arrested by officer Bell yesterday, and had a hearing. The result was, the accused was held to bail to answer at Court.

The most remarkable feature we have to notice in regard to our local stock market, is the sale of Columbia oil stock, at McIlwain's auction sale, on Tuesday evening, at 12. This is the lowest point this stock has touched for several years, though as there was but a small lot of it, 10 shares, it cannot fairly be taken as a fair criterion of the market. Some two years ago, Columbia was regarded as a good investment at 60, and even up to 75, but since then it has gradually but steadily, as have all other oil stocks, been depreciating in value, until it is now down to almost nothing. The Columbia is, without doubt, one of the best oil companies in this market, but the ruinously low price of oil—about $1,50 per bbl at the wells—has affected it, and all other companies of a similar character, most disastrously.

—Says the New York Tribune of Tuesday: "A persistent effort is making to commit the House against the policy of contraction; thus far without success. Yesterday a resolution for a bill to prevent the further withdrawal of legal tender currency was laid on the table—that is, killed—by 88 to 58. Will the pork speculators and gold gamblers take notice?"

—The House of Representative has established an important precedent in the matter of the reissues of lost government bonds or treasury notes. The well known case of Ober, Manson & Co., of New York, who ask to be reimbursed for sixty thousand dollars in compound interest notes sent by mail in a registered package to their house in New Orleans, and lost in October, 1865, by the sinking of the steamer Republic, came up from the Committee on Claims, and the bill was finally passed by the small majority of ten. The bill provides that a reissue shall only take place six months after the notes become due, and upon satisfactory evidence of loss, and a bond of indemnity to the government in amount and surety to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury.

—The Secretary of the Treasury, in reply to a direction of the Senate, has furnished a letter from the Controller of the Currency, to the effect that the National Banks comply strictly with the law requiring them to make quarterly exhibits of the their condition. The Controller suggests that the managers of the Clearing Houses should be required to report weekly all banks that are deficient in their reserve of lawful money, and that the returns should be made monthly instead of quarterly.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, December 19, 1866.

There is really but little that is new to be said about the produce markets. The receipts of Flour and Grain are again increasing and the supply is fully up to the demand, while Groceries and Provisions are quiet and unchanged. Dressed Hogs are coming in very freely, and as the supply will doubtless be considerably in excess of the wants of the retail trade, many of those now arriving will find their way into the hands of packers. There is a steady local demand for Apples, Butter, Beans, and many other articles we might mention.

GRAIN—Wheat is in better demand, and No 1 Spring may be quoted firm at $2,60 to 2,62; sale of 1 car on private terms. There is no improvement to note in the demand for Barley, and in the absence of sales, we quote nominally at 90 to $1. Oats steady but quiet; we continue to quote at 48 to 50, on track. Sale of 1 car Rye at $1,28. Corn is selling in store at 80 to 85, for new crop.

FLOUR—The market is firm a shade higher, though there is no perceptible improvement in the demand. Good to choice brands of Spring Wheat cannot be sold here below $12 to 12,25, according to the latest advices from Chicago. Winter Wheat brands are selling at $13,50 to $14, and fancy brands at $15 to $17. Rye Flour is steady at $8¼ and Buckwheat at $4½ in bbls, and $4¾, in sacks.

APPLES—Steady with a demand fully up to the supply, and the market may be quoted firm at $3 to $3,50 per bbl. Good Apples well packed, in sound condition, and in good packages, would doubtless bring the outside figure for shipment.

POTATOES—Continue quiet and a little dull but unchanged. Prime Peach Blows are selling in store at 95 to $1 per bush, and $3 per barrel.

BUTTER—Continues to meet with an improved demand, and prime Roll, in bbls and half bbls, sells readily at 30—would bring more, doubtless, in small packages.

HAY—Is in steady demand; prime to choice Timothy Hay still commands $30 to $32, on track and wharf. Loose Hay is selling at scales at $33 to $36 per ton.

BEANS—There is considerable inquiry for prime small white, new crop, and the stock in this market is very light. We quote at $2,75 to $3 per bushel.

EGGS—Continue rather dull, the supply being considerably in excess of the demand, and prices—33 to 34 cts—are barely maintained.

CHEESE—Continues very dull, and with a supply considerably in excess of the demand, prices are entirely nominal.

OIL—The demand for Lard Oil is rather light, though prices are unchanged; we quote at $1,25 for No. 1, and 95 for No. 2.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, December 19, 1866.

CRUDE—There was not a single operation to-day that we could hear of worthy of special mention, and the market is dull and weak though prices are nominally unchanged. We continue to quote at 8 to 8½, in bulk and barrels returned; and 14 to 14½, packages included. Indeed, there seems to be little or no demand at present, though doubtless, if there were sellers, buyers could be found for a considerable amount at 8 cts, on the spot, and 8¾ to 9, to be delivered during the months of March and April next. Our latest advices from Oil City, report a general dullness and stagnation, both at that point and at the wells, and prices have still further declined, being quoted at $2¼ to $2½ per bbl at the former place, and $1,50 to $1,75 at the wells, according to gravity and location. These are certainly very low figures, but whether the bottom has yet been touched or not, time alone will develop.

REFINED—There are no new features in the market for bonded oil worthy of special notice. The demand, for present as well as for future delivery, continues light, while prices are nominally unchanged. December delivery in Philadelphia may be quoted at 29 to 29½; January at 30, and February at 31—there was a sale a day or two since, but not before reported, of one thousand barrels at 28¼, free on board cars here, which is about the same as 29½, delivered in Philadelphia. The movement in Free oil continues very light, the demand being restricted almost wholly to supplying the wants of the local trade; good standard brands may be quoted at 44 to 45, for fifty and hundred barrel lots.

ARRIVALS—There has not been a single arrival of oil by river this week. The following lots were received to-day by rail: Barbour & Co., 110; Waring & King, 41; Sellers & Canfield, 55—total, 206.

New York Financial Matters.

NEW YORK, December 19.—Money more active at 6@7 per cent. Sterling 109¾@109⅞. Gold is a shade easier, opening at 137¼, and declining to 136¾. Governments are unaltered. Stocks dull and lower: Rock Island, 43⅛; Clev. and Pittsburgh, 84¼; Northwestern, 52½; preferred, 78¾; Toledo, 121½; Fort Wayne, 105½; Milwaukee and St. Paul preferred, 68; Illinois Central Scrip, 18; Michigan Southern, 81½; Michigan Central, 112¾; New York Central, 41½; Pacific Mail, 70. 5-20s '65 coupons, new issue, 8¼; 7-30s, 5¾; Western Union Telegraph, 48¾; Missouri 6s, 93.

LATEST.

There is a fair demand for money, but it continues to be met at 6 per cent. on stock collaterals, and 5 per cent. on Governments. The supply of capital is large and increasing. Prime discounts are 6½@7 per cent. Foreign Exchange is dull and weak. Prime bankers' bills are quoted at 109¾. The gold market closed quietly at 136¾@136⅞. The Government Securities were lower at the close on the gold bonds, but steady on the Treasury Notes. Registered '81, 108@108¼; coupons of '81, 112¼@112⅜; 5-20s, registered, '62, 106¾@106⅞; 5-20 coupons of '62, 107½@107⅝; 5-20 coupons, 106½@106⅝; 5-20 coupons of '65, 106⅜@106½; 10-40s, 99⅞@99¾; 10-40 coupons, 99⅞@100.

The continuous session of the Stock Exchange was brought to an abrupt close this afternoon, and a new arrangement substituted. The stock market at the last open board was generally steady. The following were the closing quotations at 4 o'clock: Ohio & Mississippi Certificates, 24@24¼; New York Central, 110⅞@111; Erie, 73@73¼; Cleveland and Toledo, 122@122¼; Michigan Central, 112¾@113; Rock Island, 104⅛@104¼; North Western, 52½@52¾; do. preferred, 78¾@78⅞; Fort Wayne, 106½@107.

The mining shares were active at the afternoon board and generally higher, as compared with the morning quotations. Consolidated Gregory, 9,60; Corydon, 4,05; Quartz Hill, 3,85.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, December 19.—The market continues steady for leading goods of domestic manufacture. Trade is all that can be expected at this season of the year. The near approach to the active season of spring leads some speculators to take what prime goods can be had at low prices. Woolen goods are in request, but prices are very low. The market is bare for standard Brown Sheetings and Shirtings, and prices firm and but little doing in bleached goods. Print cloths are active and rates steady. Prints dull, with increased supply, and prices weak. There is but little demand for Denims, and large orders would obtain concessions. There is but little demand for Canton Flannels. Delaines are in demand and prices firm. The trade is moderate for Cloths and Cassimeres. Satinets are dull and lower. Blankets are not very active and prices are very low. Jobbers report a light steady trade in foreign goods, but at very low rates. There is a general disposition to close out stocks and many kinds of goods are forced upon the market below the regular price.

RIVER NEWS.

The river is again receding at this point, the Monongahela marks denoting but five and a half feet yesterday afternoon. The sun was visible for a few moments several times yesterday, but its influence on the snow was very feeble, and it had but little effect except to render street crossings sloppy and disagreeable.

The arrivals since our last report include the Argosy, from Cincinnati, Forest City, from Kanawha River, and the Minnie, from St. Louis, all having very good trips. The Minnie brought among other items a considerable amount of metal, which she put off at the Point.

The W. F. Curtis expected to get off for Cincinnati last night, providing she could get her cargo on board. She had engaged 200 tons of metal for Wheeling, and 20 tons for Ironton.

The Argosy, owing to having been detained somewhat on her up trip by the ice, did not get off yesterday—her regular day for leaving here for Cincinnati—but she will leave on Friday at 12 o'clock, positively, and passengers and shippers can rely on this. Week after next, however, she will leave on Wednesday, as usual. Capt. Vanvergrift and clerk, W. H. Scott, know how to conduct business in a packet trade.

The Grey Eagle did not get out for Parkersburg as expected yesterday, being apprehensive that the ice might interfere with her getting back. The Bayard may venture out to-day.

The Leonora, Capt. Davis, is filling up steadily for Cincinnati and Louisville, as is also the Arabian, Capt. Cox, for St. Louis, and both of these boats will soon get out.

The Leonidas, Capt. A. R. McGowan, and the Kate Robinson, Capt. Robinson, are announced for New Orleans. The Robinson has already over two thousand plows engaged.

The levee is in a miserable condition at present. Indeed, it is almost impossible for teams to get either up or down, except in one or two places where roads have been made, and this, as a matter of course, has a tendency to retard shipments.

If the weather should now turn warm and rainy, a very high stage of water would follow, as the ground was thoroughly frozen on the surface before the late fall of snow. Now, with a rain, the great mass of snows along the entire Ohio Valley would go off into the water courses, and not a drop soak into the earth. Heavy falls of snow are reported all along the water courses, extending to and beyond the mountains, and it would be well for people dwelling on lands liable to overflow to be on the lookout, as a turn of warm, rainy weather just now would make a freshet in the Ohio.

The damage done to Lock No. 3 on the Monongahela will interfere with the passage of boats through until the repairs are made. The United States Mail Line are fortunate in having a boat on each side of the break, consequently they will be enabled to continue their regular trips by changing freight and passengers.

The towboat Baltic arrived at Louisville on Saturday last, with seven barges of coal in tow, destined for the New Orleans market, and the Kenton, en route from Pittsburgh to New Orleans, descended the falls the same day. The Baltic, we regret to learn, was so unfortunate as to lose two of her barges on her down trip. We clip the following items from the Cincinnati Commercial of Tuesday:

Capt. Johnston, of the Glasgow, and Capt. Anderson, of the R. C. Gray, were to leave for Pittsburgh on last night's train, where they will remain until the prospects for navigation and business are more favorable. The last arrivals report running ice as low down as Portsmouth....... A portion of the Arkansas and White River Wrecking-boat Company, consisting of the steamers Northwest, Submarine No. 3, and flats, took their departure for the South yesterday. The balance of the Company's boats will stay here for the present. ....Capt. John K. Booth, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad line of towboats, received a dispatch from Parkersburg last night, reporting fourteen feet in the river at that point, and the little Kanawha full. There was no ice to interfere with navigation......... The Messenger, Capt. Jesse Dean, and John H. Groesbeck, Capt. Dan Marratta, are both loading for New Orleans direct.....Capt. J. D. Parker, who returned from the Emperor sunk on the head of the canal at Louisville, is of the opinion she can be raised.
